

Budd and Alice Meyers Endowed Scholarship Application

Deadline: February 14th, 2022

The Budd and Alice Meyers endowed scholarship fund will provide a medical or pharmacy student at NEOMED with a $2,500 scholarship. The recipient must demonstrate an interest in and passion for Palliative Care and Geriatrics. Preference will be given to students that have completed a Student Summer Fellowship or M-STAR Fellowship in association with the Office of Geriatrics and/or Office of Palliative Care. Applicants must be in good academic standing. The scholarship will be applied to the student's educational expenses for the current academic year (2021-2022).

Student Name: _____

Student ID: _____

Application requirements:

Submit an essay, not to exceed two pages, describing your practice and understanding of patient centered care, specifically the effects of Alzheimer's (and Dementia), and the role of a pharmacist/physician to care for these patients.

Please submit:

- Via email - finaid@neomed.edu; or
- Upload on <http://apps.neomed.edu> > All Users > Secure Document Upload. Choose FA Scholarship Application as type of document, then press submit. A green box will appear in the upper right corner to let you know that your document was submitted successfully.

If I am selected for the scholarship, I hereby give my permission to the University to release directory information to the NEOMED Foundation and to the University's Advancement and Public Relations and Marketing Office. When NEOMED funds are awarded, directory information (which can include student composite, name, and email address), and fund awarded may be disclosed for development and public relations purposes.

Signature: _____ Date: _____