FELLOWSHIP IN ACADEMIC MEDICINE

TEACHING TRACK ● Call for Applications

What you learn in a year can help foster academic excellence, innovation and scholarly productivity.

The NEOMED FAME Teaching Track is suitable for health professions educators who are interested in improving their skills as educators, clinicians and scholars. Curriculum in this track will focus on stimulating and supporting the creation and implementation of innovative approaches to curriculum design, student learning and assessment, clinical teaching skills, classroom teaching skills, curriculum evaluation and outcome research.

Course Schedule

Sessions will be held one Wednesday of each month from January to October. The January, June and October sessions will be 9 a.m. - 5 p.m. at the NEOMED Rootstown campus. All other sessions will be held virtually via Zoom 8 a.m. - noon (Sept. 8 a.m. - late afternoon). Final schedule will be shared with Fellows upon acceptance.

Curriculum

Sessions will include skills building workshops, group activities, and project discussions. Each cohort will experience a curriculum that is uniquely designed and adapted to the needs of the fellows and the current health care and education environment.

Registration Fee

$2500 ($2000 for NEOMED faculty members)
