

Call for Proposals

John P. Murphy Symposium in Medical Humanities

The John P. Murphy Symposium in Medical Humanities is an opportunity for Ohio medical students, faculty, and others who are engaged in health humanities to gather, network, share their work, and enhance their skills. Generously funded by a grant from the John P. Murphy Foundation, this symposium is free to all presenters and attendees, and will feature keynote speakers, student presentations, and hands-on workshops in medical and health humanities and arts. Student participation is especially encouraged! Awards will be given for the best presentations, voted on by attendees.

Deadline for proposals: January 12, 2025

Symposium Information:

Saturday, March 8, 9:00 a.m. - 4:00 p.m.

Health Education Campus, Cleveland Clinic

9501 Euclid Ave., Cleveland, Ohio

Lunch and snacks provided

We invite proposals from medical students and all who are interested in curricular and extracurricular activities in the medical and health humanities, including but not limited to...

- Community engagement efforts
- Medical and health humanities/arts projects, such as journal publishing, visual and performing arts, poetry, history, philosophy
- The intersection of wellness, disability, and artistic endeavors
- Medical and health humanities curriculum
- Diversity, equity, and inclusion projects and curriculum

We welcome a variety of presentation formats, including:

- Flash Presentations
  - Five-minute presentations with 5 or fewer slides showcasing arts and humanities curriculum, extracurricular projects, and scholarly work
- Paper and Project Presentations
  - 10 to 15-minute presentations on scholarly work, curriculum, extracurricular activities, etc. Need not be a formal paper.
  - Intergenerational – cross discipline – faculty/student

- Visual Arts Gallery
  - Display your visual art in a gallery setting, along with a description. Art can take any form, including digital.
- Performance
  - Showcase your performance (5 minutes or less) in spoken word poetry, music, dance, theatre, or performance art during the dessert reception.
- Other
  - Have an idea that isn't represented here? Let us know!

Please click here to submit your proposal.