AI Prompt-A-Thon

for NEOMED faculty and staff

Monday, May 12 | 12:30 - 1 p.m.

via Zoom

Facilitated by:

Brian Harrell, M.A.

Writing Center Specialist
Adjunct Assistant Professor
Adjunct Graduate Faculty II
College of Graduate Studies

This is an opportunity for participants to use generative AI tools to create and refine prompts, which are then used to produce specific outputs. It's a hands-on, interactive experience focused on learning and experimenting with how to effectively interact with AI.
